

Introducing “PAP of DPD-RI” In Its Role of Overseeing The State Financial Management

Farouk Muhammad

The Chairman of Public Accountability Committee
(PAP) of the House of Regional Representatives (DPD-RI)

Presented

In Twelfth Biennial Australasian Council of Public Accounts Committees Conference (ACPAC)

1

I. PAP of DPD-RI

The 1945 Constitution

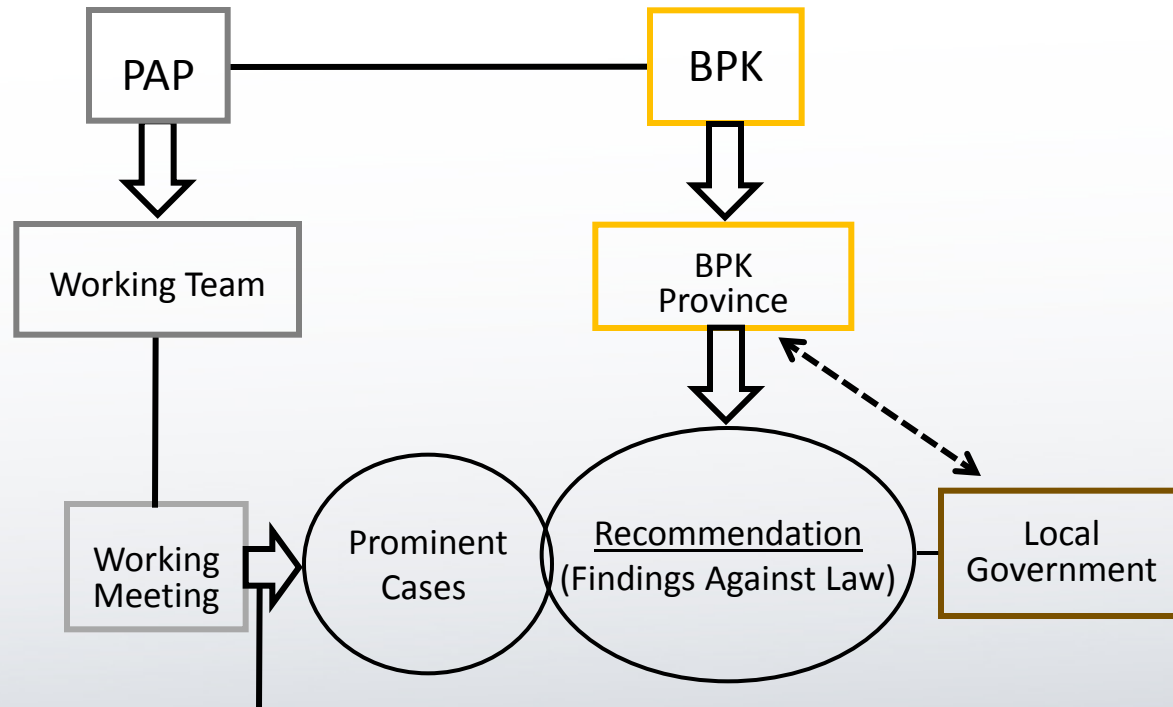

- Propose & discuss certain Bill related to regional interest and oversee its implementation.
- Provide consideration of state budget and oversee its implementation.

Notes: PAP more focuses on state budget implementation by Local Government. Meanwhile State Financial Accountability Agency (BAKN-DPR-RI) more focuses on central government.

- Follow up BPK audit as well as complaints from the public related to the corruption.

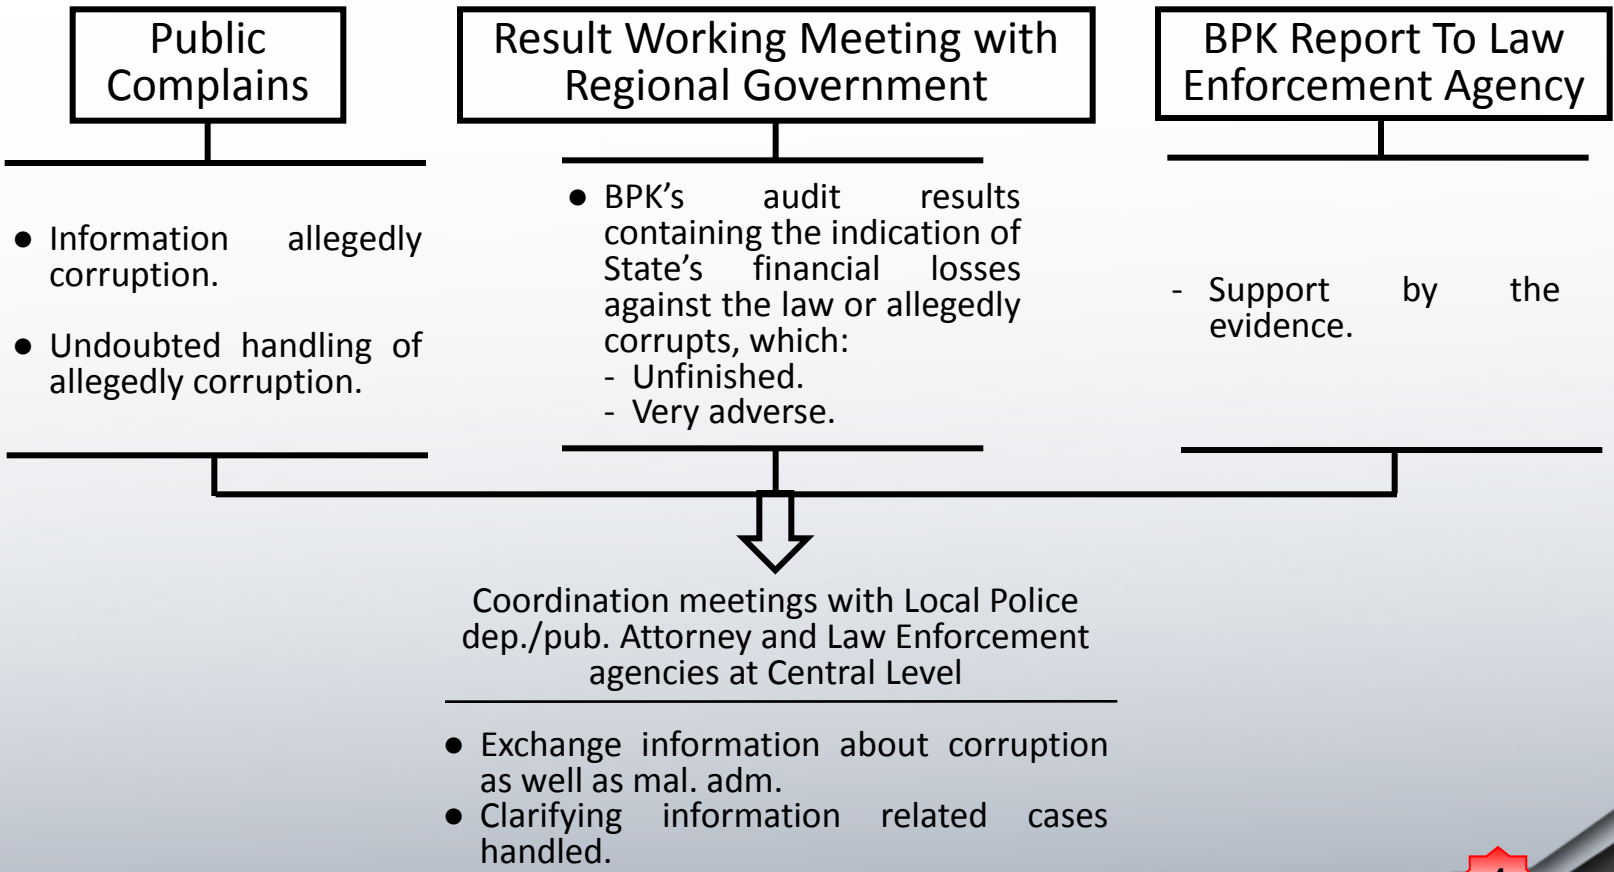

II. Following - Up BPK's Recommendations

- Rescuing the state's financial losses.
- Encourage the follow up process of the recommendations that has not been followed up.

III. Cooperation With Law Enforcement Agencies

IV. Obstacle and Problems of PAP

- Inconsistent, Overlapped, Contradictive and Regulations.
- Different perception/interpretation on state's financial losses assessments.
- Human resources factors:
 - high officials commitment;
 - quality of workers.
- Coordination and Integration:
 - BPK and law enforcement agencies;
 - Inter-Law Enforcement Agencies.

V. The Future of PAP

- Encourage Integrity of Local Government especially to achieve “good governance” and “clean government”.
- Improve cooperation with BPK, Police Dep., Public Attorney, KPK, include BAKN DPR-RI and others government agencies.
- Develop cooperation with CSOs.
- Establishes cooperation with similar institutions in neighboring countries for the same purpose.

Thank You

7